

CAPT. VEATER IS BACK AT WORK

Police Commission Reinstates Veater, Warnock and Mebus.

At the meeting of the civil service commission Wednesday afternoon, Capt. H. Veater, S. H. Warnock and Ed Mebus, of the police department, were all reinstated with full pay.

In the case of Capt. Veater and Mr. Warnock, the commission stated that the charges made by Jack P. Sheehan, the commission stated that at the time the charges were made, Sheehan was given the men by C. E. Pollock, who was at that time chief of police. This was in November, 1918, and though the commission did not feel that Sheehan was adequate punishment, still it deemed that Inspector Veater and Mr. Warnock were reinstated in suspended status after the matter had been acted upon by chief Pollock. The commission further stated that they were not in any manner reflecting upon Mr. Sheehan's action, but that it considered itself justified in reinstating the men.

Both Reinstated.

A commission was given both Capt. Veater and Mr. Warnock, and Ed Mebus, of the police department, were all reinstated with full pay.

In the case of Capt. Veater and Mr. Warnock, the commission stated that the charges made by Jack P. Sheehan, the commission stated that at the time the charges were made, Sheehan was given the men by C. E. Pollock, who was at that time chief of police. This was in November, 1918, and though the commission did not feel that Sheehan was adequate punishment, still it deemed that Inspector Veater and Mr. Warnock were reinstated in suspended status after the matter had been acted upon by chief Pollock. The commission further stated that they were not in any manner reflecting upon Mr. Sheehan's action, but that it considered itself justified in reinstating the men.

In speaking to Capt. Veater, Mr. Kemp said: "Capt. Veater, no one has ever questioned your honesty or your integrity, nor has a word been spoken against your courage, but there have been complaints made against your language and especially in regard to your temper. When you get angry, you say things that no officer with a conscience ought to say."

Mebus Also Put Back.

The case of Ed Mebus, charged by P. O. Stevens, manager for Lyon and company, with false arrest and refusing to allow him the use of a telephone, after arrest, to call his attorney, was heard. The commission reinstated the detective with full pay. There is a rule in the detective office that no one arrested be allowed to use the telephone until seen by the captain of the police force. This rule was made by the police commission to keep criminals from "tipping off" others who might be implicated in a crime.

The resignation was accepted of officer Joel Finley. The matter of adding 10 men to the police force is under consideration by the commission. An enlarged traffic force is needed and the matter was discussed at length.

Keep Policemen Home.

The commission was requested by Mayor Charles Davis to make a rule for the police department that no member of the force be allowed to leave the city without the permission of either the chairman of the civil service commission or the chairman of the police department. This rule was made by the police commission to keep criminals from "tipping off" others who might be implicated in a crime.

Major Davis also told the commission that he desired the discharge of officer J. A. Wilson, his reason being that Wilson, while intoxicated, had struck a federal officer. The rule that Wilson was returning from leaves when he had an encounter with the federal officer, the commission made in regard to officers leaving the city, as in the Wilson case, he said.
